

. If you think the word is an adverb, put a tick next to it. If you think it is an adverb of possibility, put two ticks next to it. If you think it is not an adverb, put a cross next to it.

- | | | | | | |
|-------------|--------------------------|------------|--------------------------|--------------|--------------------------|
| a) Possibly | <input type="checkbox"/> | d) angrily | <input type="checkbox"/> | g) certainly | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| b) Tractor | <input type="checkbox"/> | e) perhaps | <input type="checkbox"/> | h) cleverly | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| c) playing | <input type="checkbox"/> | f) later | <input type="checkbox"/> | i) visited | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Task: Write out the sentences underneath choosing the correct word.

I am going to church on Sunday morning / mourning.

"Dad's camper van past / passed the MOT!" shrieked Paul.

Read this sentence. What type of word is underlined? Tick one.

That's the lady who teaches me to play the drums.

possessive pronoun

relative pronoun

personal pronoun

!. Can you add an adverb of possibility to complete these sentences?

a) The South-West of England is _____ a great place for a holiday.

b) _____ he will do better this time because he has trained very hard.

c) I could _____ be persuaded to enter the competition.

d) Look at the sky! It is _____ going to rain.

Task: Write out the sentences underneath choosing the correct word.

Mum always has a cup of coffee first thing in the morning / mourning.

The pipe was made of led / lead.

The sentence below has a missing word. Complete the sentence by using the correct relative pronoun.

This is the book I told you about.